Reviews

A whole new eBook with a brand new point of view. It is definitely simplistic but shocks in the 50 percent of the publication. I am just pleased to explain how this is the greatest ebook i have read during my very own daily life and could be he best ebook for possibly.

Inventors, artists, poets, educators, and scientists are gifted with vigorous imaginations. 2. Imagination is the intentional picturing power. All its products are individual and have a material basis. We call our capability to purposely make images, imagination. The successful student uses his imagination almost aa much as he uses his reason. 3. Imagination is the creative power of the soul. In its highest form, it virtually creates. Its creations are new because experiences are set in new lights. Poetry is truer than history. A fable may contain more truth than a biography, because the permanent meaning of things is set in general forms. Because they represent universal human nature, the creations of Homer and Plato and Shakespeare and Emerson will continue to live through the centuries. Limits of Imagination. --Lofty as are his nights, self, as imagination, works within well-defined limits. 1. As to physical phenomena, imagination is limited to sense-percepts. I can place in my creations only what I have experienced. The creations of the blind are colorless; of the deaf, soundless; of those destitute of smell, odorless. 2. As to psychical phenomena, imagination is limited to conscious-percepts. I endow my rational creations with my own conscious powers. I can do no more. My angels simply know, feel, and will. God knows infinitely, feels infinitely, wills infinitely, but it is impossible for me to endow even Deity with additional powers, though convinced that His capabilities are infinite in number...
