The kings of the earth stand up, and the rulers take counsel together against the Lord and against His anointed, saying: Let us break their bonds asunder, and cast away their cords from us. * As we commonly wonder at a new effect, when we have never been face to face with its cause; so, as soon as we understand the cause, we look down with a kind of scorn on those who remain in wonder. I, myself, was once filled with wonder that the Roman people had become paramount throughout all the earth, without any to withstand them; for when I looked at the thing superficially I thought that this supremacy had been obtained, not by any right, but only by arms and violence. But after...
