O-U have for a long time known the constant resolution of the French nation to preserve its ancient relations with the Ottoman Empire. My illustrious predecessor, General Bonaparte, has often declared it to you since the circumstances os the war have induced us to visit this country. He neglected no measure to distipate the apprchnsions which had been infused into the Porte, led as it was to conclude an alliance equally contrary to its interests and ours. The explanation sent by him to the court Ll 2 of ready given proofs of this by assasiinating the magistrate of the people (Citizen Guetnic; in the isle of Arz). Deluded tnen, forsake these perfidious leaders! Let those chiefs, who are attached to their criminal party by false views of intcresl, be undeceivcd. Let the (leserters come and reconcile themselves honourably with the republican battalions. The day of pardon is nearly past, and I take God and man to witness, that the blood that must be shed is upon the heads ofthe chiefs of the Chouans, of the stipendiaries of England, and of the traitors to their country. Within twenty-sour hours after the publication of the present proclamation in all the comttumes of Morbihan, every unmarricd man, from fouteen to fifty years of age, shall appear before the civil or military authority of the place where he shall be, and declare that he is not a Chouan, or...
