Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Onlooker, Vol. 1: A Literary Journal of Independent Critical Opinion on Public Affairs; Toronto, March, 1921; For the People Those Liberals who, made wise by experience, clearly see that Free Trade, or an approach to Free Trade, would not only bankrupt Canada but throw it into the arms of the United States by placing it in the humiliating position of a mendicant for the crumbs that fall from the rich man's table to the South, had better do some clear thinking and acting and line up where they really belong. They cannot afford to halt any longer between two opinions; the danger is too real; the threatened disaster too imminent. The situation is, indeed, critical; for not only is our bread and butter threatened, but, what is far worse, our national soul. Are we really prepared to sell our birthright for a mess of pottage? Have we forgotten that man liveth not by bread alone, and that a nation is but the individual enlarged? Sometimes it would seem so. If our American neighbors really...

This book is definitely not simple to begin on studying but quite fun to see. I actually have read and that i am sure that i will gonna read through yet again once again in the foreseeable future. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.
