Government Accountability Office, 2004 OCLC Number: (OCOlc)57351666 Subject: Advisory boards -- Selection and appointment -- Evaluation. Excerpt: . . . officers said that problems in the telecommunications industry, such as widespread telecommunications outages and telephone numbering shortages, were the impetus behind the creation of two committees. When considering which advisory committees to establish, FCC said that the Commissions committee management officer - the agency official responsible for managing and overseeing the advisory committees - evaluates the usefulness and mission of a potential committee to ensure the benefits of establishing the committee are clear. While the committee management officer determines which advisory committees are to be established, the opinions of FCCs Chairman are taken into consideration. As prescribed by OMB, FCC is limited to eight discretionary federal advisory committees, but FCC officials we interviewed said that this limit does not pose a problem, and there are no plans to create additional committees at this time. Advisory committee members who responded to our survey, as well as the Committee Members, FCC FCC officials and trade and interest groups we contacted,...
