In accordance with the provision of the statutes I submit for your consideration the report for the statistical year ending September 30, 1925, and for the fiscal year ending November 30, 1925. The past year has seen the steady and fruitful development of the program of the previous years. This program consists of two closely correlated activities, first the care and treatment of the large number of patients referred to the Hospital suffering from a great variety of disorders, and secondly investigation into the causes, the mechanisms, the social relations of mental disorder with special attention to the possibilities of prevention and cure. Along both the above lines work has proceeded very smoothly during the past year and from the appended reports from the various departments and from the statistical tables some idea may be gained as to the extent of the clinical work and the lines of special investigation. On the Co-ordination of the Various Departments. In regard to special investigations the individual worker may carry on a somewhat isolated activity or may temporarily have the assistance of some colleague for a conjoint investigation. It is very different with regard to the care and study of the patients, where such isolated activity of the physician is not possible, but where the cooperation of a great number of workers is involved in every single case. The reception, study and treatment of every individual case involves so many different activities that the closest cooperation of the various departments is...
