2012. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. 292 This Book is an analytical attempt to focus trade Relations between India and Nepal during 1846-1947 and its impact on these two countries. The main purpose of this book is to properly analyse the trade Relations and highlight the problems and prospectus relating to it during above mentioned period. The insufficiency of Books and Research work at Advanced level in this area prompted the author to undertake a thorough analytical Study and research on the issues and intricacies of much important trade-relations between the two neighboring countries. The book will certainly prove to be a landmark in the field of interdisciplinary research in the areas of history, Political science, Commerce and economics.
