Then I-- Behold, my spirit bleeds, Catches no more at broken reeds, -- But lilies flower those reeds above-- I let the world go, and take love! Love survives in me, albeit those I loved are henceforth masks and shows, Not loving men and women: still I mind how love repaired all ill, Cured wrong, soothed grief, made earth amends With parents, brothers, children, friends! Some semblance of a woman yet With eyes to help me to forget, Shall live with me; and I will match Departed love with love, attach Its fragments to my whole, nor scorn The poorest of the grains of corn I save from shipwreck on this isle, Trusting its barrenness may...
