Not illustrated. 1853 Excerpt: . be sick, the wife must fill up his place in family affairs. If the rich are reduced to beggary, they must receive charity. If the physician be sick, somebody must look to him. So the meanest servant must admonish his master, and the child his parent, and the wife her husband, and the people their minister; so that it be done when there is real need, and with all possible humility, modesty, and meekness. Do not say, This will make us all preachers; for every good Christian is a teacher, and hath a charge of his neighbour's soul. Every man is a physician, when a regular physician cannot be had. and when the hurt is so small that any man may relieve it; and in the same cases every man must be a teacher Do not despair of success. Cannot God give it? And must it not be by means? Do not plead, it will only be casting pearls before swine. When you are in danger to be torn in pieces, Christ would have you forbear; but what is that to you that are in no such danger? As long as they will hear, you have encouragement to speak and may not turn them off as contemptible swine. Say not, It is a friend on whom I much depend, and by telling him his sin and misery, I may lose his love, and be undone. Is his love more to be valued than...
